Dear Mrs. Manley:

I received your letter this morning with reference to the Workmen's Compensation Insurance.

The premium for the insurance is figured on last year's payroll and adjustments for changes are made at the end of the season. The policy will be written to cover everyone on the team and not by their names.

Thank you for the information you've been sending. It's fine.

Very truly yours,
